a Three operations, one decision

MEASURE

Current symptoms, time, income

Describe the observed state

PREDICT

Changes under options A and B

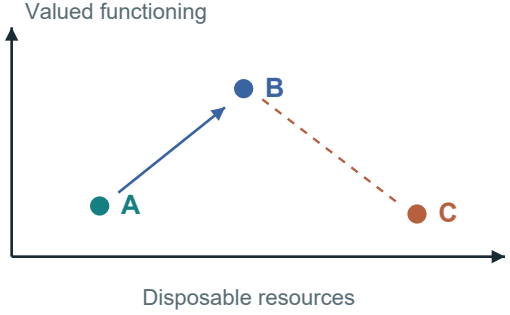

Use applicable evidence

APPRAISE

Consequences against priorities

Judge the trade-off

b Dominance and trade-offs

B versus A: conditional dominance

Requires all relevant outcomes and uncertainty to support the ordering.

B versus C: a trade-off remains

More resources and more functioning diverge. Personal priorities determine the appraisal.